Amedisys discusses hospice home care at community watch

KITTRELL COMMUNITY WATCH

The Kittrell Community Watch met at the Kittrell Community House on May 19 for a presentation on Hospice Home Care. Kittrell Community Watch President Edward Woodlief called the meeting to order, and Chaplin Allen Murphy delivered the invocation.

The featured speakers were Anna Perry and Allen Murphy from Amedisys Hospice Care in Franklinton. Perry and Murphy explained many aspects of hospice home care, including qualification requirements, hospice goals and roles of the hospice team. They said there are both for-profit and not-for-profit hospice companies. Also, patients have the right to choose from the several hospice companies that serve the area and hospice care is fully reimbursed by Medicare Part A. Go to kittrellcommunitywatch.com for more information.

The next Kittrell Community Watch meeting is scheduled for July 21.
